LIBRARY FACULTY JOB DESCRIPTION

Nature of Work

The Library Faculty must provide high quality service within their area of responsibility; work cooperatively and collaboratively with faculty, staff, and students; remain accountable to co-workers and supervisors; utilize technology efficiently; work toward enhancing the learning process for students; and remain current in their discipline. Library Faculty members are expected to devote a minimum of 40 hours per week to the institution. Library Faculty must carry out their duties in a professional, ethical, and collegial manner that enhances the mission of the institution. The Library Faculty functions under the general direction of the Executive Director of Library Services, Director of Library Services, the Director of Library Technical Services, or the Associate Library Director (where applicable).

Illustrative Examples of Work

• Responsible for a particular unit/area of library service under the supervision of the Executive Director, a Director of Library Services, Director of Library Technical Services, or Associate Library Director such as: cataloging, circulation, collection development and management, instructional design, interlibrary loan, library automation systems, library instruction, reference, non-print collection, and serials and microfilm collection and management.
• Maintains high level of excellence in all assigned tasks.
• Prepares and teaches courses in the LIST program and completes all other duties commensurate with teaching a credit-bearing course.
• Maintains a weekly on-campus schedule. Library Faculty with reference and circulation desk duties maintain scheduled desk hours as assigned.
• Counsels students regarding library resources for use in class assignments.
• Attends official college functions.
• Assumes committee responsibilities as assigned.
• Pursues professional development.
• Provides instruction in the use of equipment applicable to library services such as computers, photocopiers, and V-card machines.

Illustrative examples are not meant to be inclusive of all job responsibilities or to imply that all illustrative examples are included in each library faculty member’s responsibilities.

Desirable Knowledge, Abilities and Skills

1. Possesses thorough knowledge of discipline.
2. Is able to consistently provide quality work.
3. Is familiar with College policies and procedures and applicable Regents’ policies and procedures.
4. Demonstrates willingness to communicate with students, faculty, staff, and administration in a professional manner.
5. Initiates projects and makes decisions when necessary.
6. Applies appropriate technology in all areas of responsibility.
BOARD OF REGENTS POLICY ON EVALUATION OF FACULTY

POLICY
803.05 Evaluation of Faculty

Each institution shall establish definite and stated criteria, consistent with Regents' policies and the statutes of the institution, against which the performance of each faculty member will be evaluated. The evaluation shall occur at least annually and shall follow stated procedures as prescribed by each institution. Each institution, as part of its evaluative procedures, will utilize a written system of faculty evaluations by students, with the improvement of teaching effectiveness as the main focus of these student evaluations. The evaluation procedures may also utilize a written system of peer evaluations, with emphasis placed on the faculty member's professional development. In those cases in which a faculty member's primary responsibilities do not include teaching, the evaluation should focus on excellence in those areas (e.g., research, administration) where the individual's major responsibilities lie. Institutional policies and procedures shall ensure that each faculty member will receive a written report of each evaluation and that the results of the evaluation will be reflected in the faculty member's annual salary recommendations. Institutions will ensure that the individuals responsible for conducting performance evaluations are appropriately trained to carry out such evaluations (BR Minutes, 1979-80, p. 50; 1983-84, p. 36; May, 1996, p. 52).

Each institution shall conduct in-depth pre-tenure reviews of all faculty in their third year of progress toward tenure. The criteria established for promotion and tenure, emphasizing excellence in teaching, shall be used as the focus for these reviews. The institution shall develop pre-tenure review policies, as well as any subsequent revisions (BR Minutes, April 1996, p. 39-47; May 1996, p. 52; February 2007). Institutions employing graduate teaching and/or laboratory assistants shall develop procedures to (a) provide appropriate training to support and enhance these assistants' teaching effectiveness, (b) conduct regular assessments, based on written procedures and including results of student and faculty evaluations, of each assistant's teaching effectiveness and performance, and (c) assess competency in English and, if needed, provide training in English language proficiency.

Senior administrators shall be evaluated by the administrator's supervisor, using a performance management instrument which emphasizes leadership qualities, management style, planning and organizing capacities, effective communication skills, accountability for diversity efforts and results, and success at meeting goals and objectives. All senior administrators shall be evaluated by their subordinates (one level down) at least once every five years. Evaluation results will be the basis for the senior administrator's development plan.

Each institution shall conduct post-tenure reviews of all tenured faculty members. Each faculty member is to be reviewed five years after the most recent promotion or personnel action, and reviews shall continue at five-year intervals unless interrupted by a further review for promotion. Administrators who have tenure and who also have some teaching responsibilities will not be subject to post-tenure review as long as a majority of their duties are administrative in nature. At such time as an administrator may return full-time to the faculty, she/he will be placed into the post-tenure review cycle and will be evaluated under those guidelines as a faculty member in the fifth year following the return to the faculty and at subsequent five year intervals (BR Minutes, August 2007).

The institution president shall review and approve institutional post-tenure review policies, as well as any subsequent revisions. These institutional policies must conform to the institution's mission and to System procedures for post-tenure review. Institutional policies also shall address cases in which a tenured faculty member's performance is deemed unsatisfactory (BR Minutes, April 1996, p. 39-47; May 1996, p. 52; February 2007).
PROCEDURES

(Memoranda from Chancellor to Presidents, 6/22/81, 12/15/86)

The following steps should be made a part of all faculty evaluation systems:

1. The immediate supervisor will discuss with the faculty member in a scheduled conference the content of that faculty member’s annual written evaluation.
2. The faculty member will sign a statement to the effect that he/she has been apprised of the content of the annual written evaluation.
3. The faculty member will be given the opportunity to respond in writing to the annual written evaluation, with this response to be attached to the evaluation.
4. The immediate supervisor will acknowledge in writing his/her receipt of this response, noting changes, if any, in the annual written evaluation made as a result of either the conference or the faculty member’s written response. This acknowledgement will also become a part of the records.

GEORGIA PERIMETER COLLEGE POLICY ON FACULTY EVALUATION

In keeping with Board of Regents’ Policy, GPC has adopted the Annual Performance Review of Faculty described herein. To ensure that faculty are aware of the expectations of their supervisor and are informed of their progress as members of GPC faculty, evaluations are completed on an annual basis. This evaluation, which serves as an evaluation of progress and a discussion of expectations for the future, focuses on the objectives and goals of the individual and of the College. Because the results of this evaluation will be the sole determiner of the annual merit pay award made to each faculty member, the College recognizes the need for a consistent system for evaluating its faculty. However, the College also recognizes the diversity among its faculty and has, therefore, adopted a system of evaluation that values that diversity, asserts that progress may occur in many directions, and recognizes that many types of activities make valuable contributions to the College’s success and growth.

All library faculty members will be evaluated annually on the following components of their performance: performance effectiveness, teaching effectiveness (if applicable), practices and performance, service, and professional activities. Librarians at different points in their careers often find that they want or need to direct more effort to one component or another of their responsibilities.

Any evaluated year in which leave is taken for more than 50% of a semester of that year cannot count as a year of evaluated performance effectiveness for purposes of promotion and/or tenure. Merit pay will not be awarded for any evaluated year in which leave for more than 50% of a semester of that year is taken.

Fall: Start of Convocation to the date that final grades are due for full semester courses.

Spring: First working day of January to date that final grades are due for full semester course.
LIBRARY FACULTY EVALUATION OVERVIEW

The Library Faculty Evaluation establishes criteria for evaluating the performance of each full-time library faculty member. The criteria are based on the position description for full-time library faculty members. Salary increases for these faculty members shall be awarded on merit.

The Library Faculty Evaluation uses these broad categories:

Performance Effectiveness
Teaching Effectiveness (if applicable)
Practices and Performance
Service
Professional Activities

The Board of Regents receives an annual appropriation from the General Assembly for all phases of its operations. This appropriation may be increased or decreased by the Legislature or the Governor during the period of any fiscal year. Expenditures for operation of the University System are therefore necessarily contingent upon legislative appropriations. In the event that the General Assembly or the Governor at any time reduces the amount of funds appropriated to the Board, the compensation of all employees and other operating expenses may as a consequence be correspondingly reduced. It shall, however, be the intent of the Board to maintain current salary commitments in so far as possible to every employee and the Board will exert its composite influence and best efforts to that end. (Academic Affairs Handbook, Section 4.14.01).
Timetable for Library Faculty NOT SEEKING Promotion

The library faculty evaluation period begins January 1 and ends December 31, 2013. Timetables below go through Spring Semester 2014.

GOALS FOR THE COMING YEAR

Attach a separate sheet of paper and describe your goals for the coming year. In each area, describe the goal you plan to attain, the activities that you will undertake to achieve that goal, the methods you will use to evaluate your efforts, and the resources that you require to achieve the goals. All librarians must prepare a plan that includes performance effectiveness and either service or professional development. For those faculty teaching LIST courses, in addition to the above, goals should be included for teaching effectiveness.

BEGINNING OF SEMESTER

Library Faculty Member’s Signature  Date

(Executive/Associate) Library Director’s Signature  Date

END OF SEMESTER

Library Faculty Member’s Signature  Date

(Executive/Associate) Library Director’s Signature  Date
Each faculty member shall maintain a Course Materials Portfolio on file in his or her office that provides examples of teaching style and course materials. Each faculty member shall update the Course Materials Portfolio at least once each semester to keep it current. Faculty members need to retain materials that they intend to submit in their promotion portfolios. Faculty members are required to give their Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director a current syllabus of each course they teach at the beginning of each term. Library Directors/Associate Library Directors have the prerogative to ask to see the portfolio whenever they have a need.

Examples of course materials that might be included are:

(For any course materials that are not original, the source should be stated)

- Course syllabi for all courses for current academic year – mandatory
- Assignments
- Projects
- Writing activities
- Case studies
- Laboratory activities
- Problem-solving sets
- Examples of exercises using active learning
- Study guides
- Concept maps
- Quizzes and exams
- Support materials
- Annotated bibliographies
- Web page addresses – or first pages of pertinent web addresses
- CD-ROMs
- Samples of grading and feedback to students
- Description of uses of instructional technology
- Description of revisions of materials
- Brief explanations of materials and their uses

The Course Materials Portfolio will be reviewed by the Library Director at the Mid-Year Review and at the Annual Review. It may also be reviewed by the Promotion and Tenure Committee.
Each library faculty member shall maintain a Promotion Portfolio on file in his or her office that provides examples of excellence in performance effectiveness, service, and professional activities.

Documentation in the portfolio should consist of evidence of:

a. Excellence in librarianship (in areas such as reference service, information literacy, collection development, creation of guides and tutorials, cataloging, among others)

b. Excellence in service (such as committee work and other service to the department, college, and community)

c. Excellence in professional activities (such as examples of publications, presentations, grants, performances, projects, etc.)

Qualitative evaluation of performance effectiveness (including evaluations/observations and student evaluations and classroom observations if teaching) should also be included.

Examples of materials that might be included are:

- Research guides
- Tutorials
- Library instruction handouts
- Lesson plans for library instruction
- Substantive reference transactions (removing patron information)
- Web pages
- Quizzes developed for library instruction
- Original catalog records
- Library display materials
- Committee documents/minutes
- Certificates of completion from courses
- Publications
- Presentations
- Awards

The Promotion Portfolio will be reviewed by the Library Director at the Mid-Year Review and at the Annual Review. It may also be reviewed by the Promotion and Tenure Committee.
Because Georgia Perimeter College values excellence in teaching, all faculty will have their classroom and library instruction teaching observed periodically. Satisfactory classroom observations are expected. Classroom observations will be an important component of the Faculty Review Process. Classroom observations and the discussions associated with them should also be used as an opportunity for faculty development.

During the first term that a librarian teaches, the librarian’s class will be observed by the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director. The Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director also should check the course syllabi, course materials, and other information and documentation as necessary.

After the first observation, classes taught by librarians will be observed annually for the first three years. After the first three observations, classes will be observed once every three years.

Faculty members applying for a personnel action (i.e., promotion) must be observed within the year prior to the application for that personnel action.

The observations should be discussed with the faculty member within two weeks of the observation. At that time, all forms dealing with the observation should be signed and copies provided to the faculty member. The originals should remain on file in the department in a secured location.

If a faculty member wants additional observations, the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director should make arrangements for those observations.

Distance learning classes must be observed in addition to face-to-face classes. Online Library Directors will observe a distance learning class for faculty who teach both. For distance learning courses, at numbers 11 and 12 on the classroom observation form, “communicates” should be substituted for “speaks”.

MID-YEAR AND ANNUAL LIBRARIAN REVIEW

The Mid-Year Faculty Review, to be held by the end of the spring semester, provides an opportunity for the faculty member and the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director to discuss Performance Areas Effectiveness, Teaching (if applicable), Practices and Performance, Service, and Professional Development. If the librarian is teaching a class, at this meeting the faculty member’s course materials portfolio also should be reviewed and discussed.

Using the GPC evaluation form as a guide, each library faculty member will submit to his or her Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director a description of performance effectiveness, service, and professional activities during that semester. To indicate his or her assessment of the library faculty member’s performance at this point, the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director will write a brief narrative (one paragraph or so) for each area: performance effectiveness, practices and performance, service, and professional activities. That is, does the faculty member appear to be on target for what is expected? Are there any areas that need improvement? Does it appear at this point that a faculty member’s work in some area(s) may lead to an exceptional rating during the final review?

The mid-year review process is intended to provide a forum for discussion about any potential areas of concern, helping the faculty member to make improvements before the end of the calendar year.

After the discussion, the Director/Supervisor will complete the GPC Library Faculty Evaluation form. This document remains in the department files and provides a reference for the annual faculty review. A copy is also given to the faculty member. For librarians applying for promotion, the mid-year review will be submitted at the time of application to complete the number of semesters of review required.

A. PERFORMANCE EFFECTIVENESS AREAS

Suggested topics for discussion regarding performance effectiveness at the mid-year review are listed below. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

- Cataloging
- Circulation
- Collection development and management (including electronic resources)
- Instructional design and maintenance
- Interlibrary loan
- Library instruction
- Library systems
- Non-print services
- Reference service
- Research guides
- Serials and microfilm collection and management
- Supervision
- Technology Support

Other: ________
B. TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS (Librarians Teaching Courses for Credit)

In order to demonstrate teaching effectiveness, faculty members need to show not only what they do, but how what they do enhances student learning. Effective teaching results in students developing thinking processes and learning skills and information that will lead to mastery of the course outcomes.

Suggested topics for discussion regarding teaching effectiveness at the mid-year review are listed below. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

1. Syllabi
   Course syllabi are clearly written, complete, accurate, distributed on time and cover content as specified by the Common Course Outline.

2. Course Materials
   Assignments are designed to enable the students to master the course outcomes. Assessments are designed to demonstrate that students have developed thinking processes and have learned skills and information that show mastery of the course content.

3. Student Evaluations and Feedback
   Student evaluations are satisfactory.
   Student comments, if received, show that the students believe the course and professor have made a positive impact on their learning.

4. Classroom Observations
   Classroom observations reveal satisfactory classroom management skills. Faculty-student interactions are appropriate and encourage learning. Classroom environment/atmosphere is conducive to learning. Discussions are designed to enhance student learning of the course outcomes.

5. Enrollments
   Class enrollments are within norms for courses taught. Drops and withdrawals are within norms.

6. Grades
   Grade distributions are within norms for courses taught.

7. Office hours
   Faculty member is available to students during posted office hours.

8. Methodology
   Faculty member uses appropriate teaching methodology in the instruction process.

9. Advising
   Faculty member performs advising duties assigned.

C. SERVICE

Suggested topics for discussion regarding service at the mid-year review are listed below. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

1. Faculty member participates in committees and service to the College, Campus, and/or Discipline.

2. Faculty member contributes to the academic development of students outside the library.
D. PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Suggested topics for discussion regarding professional activities at the mid-year review are listed below. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

1. Faculty member participates in professional organizations.
2. Faculty member attends conferences.
3. Faculty member participates in discipline-related activities.
4. Faculty member participates in educational opportunities such as workshops or courses.

E. PRACTICES AND PERFORMANCE

Suggested topics for discussion regarding practices and performance at the mid-year review are listed below. Topics may include, but are not limited to:

1. Faculty member responds to requests for information.
2. Faculty member communicates in a timely fashion.
3. Faculty member follows established college policies and procedures.
4. Faculty member attends campus, departmental, and discipline meetings.
5. Faculty member attends official college functions.
6. Faculty member relates to students, faculty, staff and administrators in a professional manner.
7. Faculty member maintains records.

The Annual Faculty Review is held after the end of fall semester. This is the final evaluation for the year that will provide information for merit raises and promotion decisions. Using the GPC evaluation form as a guide, each library faculty member will submit to his or her Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director a description of performance effectiveness, teaching (if applicable), service, and professional activities during that year.

The Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director completes the Faculty Evaluation form after the end of the fall semester. All Library Directors and the Executive Director of Library Services will meet jointly to discuss all the annual reviews for the library faculty members to ensure consistency in evaluation. Executive Library Director/Library Directors/Associate Library Directors then hold individual discussions with each faculty member concerning performance.

EVALUATION OF FIRST-YEAR LIBRARY FACULTY

Because the Librarian Annual Review covers a calendar year and is completed at the end of fall term, librarians joining the institution in the fall will not have worked during the spring portion of that evaluation period and, therefore, will not have a complete report. However, the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director must evaluate the performance of new librarians to support a recommendation for contract renewal. New librarians will be required to turn in a Librarian Semester Profile at the beginning of their first semester and will begin a materials portfolio. New library faculty members will be evaluated by the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director at the end of fall semester.
ALIGNMENT OF THE FACULTY EVALUATION WITH GPC'S STRATEGIC PLAN

Library Faculty: This section appears in the Faculty Evaluation Handbook and is copied below in its entirety. Some parts apply to classroom faculty only.

In each category for evaluation (Teaching Effectiveness, Practices and Performance, Service, and Professional Activities), what is expected in faculty performance is aligned with GPC’s Strategic Goals as indicated at the top of each section. A faculty member can, however, address additional action items under these goals by choices they make in activities they pursue as a faculty member. Following is a comprehensive guide of what faculty activities support each of the strategic goals of the College:

Library Faculty Evaluation Summary

This page is intended to provide a summary of the ratings from the faculty evaluation. For each sub-category, exactly one rating should be selected. Should any discrepancy exist between the rating on the evaluation and the rating on this page, the rating given on this page is considered the official rating.

LIBRARY FACULTY REBUTTAL OF ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

1. Faculty evaluations by Library Directors (under oversight of the Executive Director of Library Services) must be signed and dated by the faculty member and the Library Director/Associate Library Director at the time of evaluation. The faculty member’s signature indicates review of the evaluation only. (Failure to sign the evaluation by the faculty member could become grounds for disciplinary action.) A faculty member who wishes to rebut an evaluation by the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director should follow the procedure outlined below. The faculty member should review and discuss the evaluation with the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director before the evaluation is placed in the personnel file.

2. If the faculty member disagrees with the evaluation, the faculty member may write a memorandum of rebuttal or explanation of any parts of the evaluation with which there is disagreement. Within five (5) working days of the evaluation conference, the faculty member should send the memorandum to the Library Director/Associate Library Director with copies to the Executive Director of Library Services. If the faculty member is a Library Director then the memorandum should be sent to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

3. Upon receipt of a memorandum of rebuttal from a faculty member, the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director/Vice President for Academic Affairs will acknowledge receipt in writing.

4. The faculty member, in addition, may request a joint conference with the Executive Director of Library Services and the Library Director/Associate Library Director. If the faculty member is a Library Director, he or she may request a joint conference with the Executive Director of Library Services and the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Any changes in the annual evaluation made as a result of either the conference or the faculty member's written rebuttal will be a joint decision of the Executive Director of Library Services and the Assistant Vice President and must be noted in writing by the Executive Director of Library Services. This written acknowledgment of change will be appended to the original evaluation, and all copies become a part of the evaluation record along with the memorandum of rebuttal. The faculty member will be notified of the decision within five (5) working days.

5. If the faculty member is dissatisfied with the outcome of the rebuttal, the faculty member has five working days to appeal the evaluation and any changes that have been noted to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The decision of the Vice President for Academic Affairs is final.

6. The evaluation, the memorandum of rebuttal, the Library Director’s/Associate Library Director's response, and a summary of the conference/decision with the Executive Director of Library Services/Vice President for Academic Affairs, if any, and any changes to the evaluation that have been noted, will become a part of the faculty member’s portfolio.

7. In addition to signing and dating the evaluation form, the faculty member is required to sign and date any attachments and return the signed evaluation and any attachments to the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director.

8. The Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director will provide the faculty member with a copy of the evaluation, including any changes that have been noted. The Library Director/Associate Library Director will keep a copy of the evaluation and submit the original files through the Executive Director of Library Services to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

9. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will submit all completed annual evaluations of faculty to the Human Resources Department where they will become a part of the faculty member’s permanent file.
PROMOTION

GEORGIA PERIMETER COLLEGE PHILOSOPHY ON PROMOTION

Rank at Georgia Perimeter College should indicate not only a faculty member’s length of service at an institution, it must also reflect the contributions of the faculty member to the College as they relate to the College’s mission and values. As stated in the Board of Regents’ guidelines for promotion:

POLICY

803.08 CRITERIA FOR PROMOTION

Each University System institution shall establish clearly stated promotion criteria and procedures that emphasize excellence in teaching for all teaching faculty. These policies will be submitted to the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for review.

1. Minimum for all three types of institutions in all professorial ranks:
   a. Superior teaching
   b. Outstanding service to the institution
   c. Academic achievement
   d. Professional growth and development

Noteworthy achievement in all four of the above need not be demanded, but should be expected in at least two. A written recommendation should be submitted by the head of the department concerned setting forth the reasons for promotion. The faculty member's length of service with an institution shall be taken into consideration in determining whether or not the faculty member should be promoted.

Last Updated: 04/15/2002

These guidelines set out qualitative measure for classroom faculty performance.

For library faculty at Georgia Perimeter College, promotion criteria and procedures emphasize excellence in performance effectiveness, while allowing for variances in a librarian's emphasis on service, scholarship, and ongoing professional activities. For minimum in all ranks, librarians must demonstrate Superior performance effectiveness (including teaching, if applicable).

It is important to distinguish between eligibility criteria and the criteria used for recommending a faculty member for promotion. Eligibility implies a base level of performance allowing a faculty member to apply for promotion. Furthermore, eligibility should be based on completed years. Criteria for promotion should be based upon standards of excellence appropriate to the rank in question and should increase with increasing rank. In addition to meeting the eligibility requirements, at least one of the following degree/experience requirements must be met.
GEORGIA PERIMETER COLLEGE'S CRITERIA FOR PROMOTION

Promotion to Assistant Professor

Criteria for Promotion: Promotion to Assistant Professor should be based upon evidence of significant growth and development as a Librarian Instructor.

Eligibility Requirements:
- Candidates should have three (3) or more consecutive* years as a full-time librarian instructor at GPC.
- Candidate should have 3 ratings of Exceeds in Performance Effectiveness or Teaching Effectiveness. At least 2 of the Exceeds ratings must be in Performance Effectiveness.
- Candidates should have three (3) or more years of “Expected” performance at GPC.
- Candidate who receives a doctorate in discipline is immediately considered eligible for promotion to Assistant Professor and may apply at the next review date.
- Candidate cannot have more than two ratings of “Needs Improvement” in the previous six semesters.
- Any rating of “Needs Improvement” must be followed in a subsequent year with a rating of at least “Expected Performance” in that same area.
- The most recent evaluation cannot contain a rating of “Needs Improvement” in any area.

Degree/experience requirements:
Earned Master’s Degree in Library and Information Science or higher. Earned doctorate in the field granted by a regionally accredited university. The degree requirement must be met by the date on which formal request for consideration is submitted to the Library Director/Associate Library Director.

OR
Master’s degree plus thirty (30) semester graduate hours in an appropriate field, and six fully-evaluated semesters of full-time experience at GPC as a Librarian Instructor.

OR
Master’s degree and award of at least three ratings of “exceeds expectations” or better in performance effectiveness within the 10 semesters under review.

Full-time library faculty experience is defined as an entire academic year on a library faculty contract.

* Consecutive years may include years before and after approved medical leaves, leaves of absence without pay, and professional enhancement leaves.

 Increase to five for those applying in 2016.
Promotion to Associate Professor

Criteria for Promotion: Promotion to Associate Professor indicates a faculty member’s long-term commitment to the institution, and the institution’s recognition of that faculty member’s senior status. As such, promotion to Associate Professor should be based upon evidence of sustained accomplishment and demonstrated commitment to the institution and profession.

Eligibility:

- Candidate must have 5 consecutive* years at the Assistant Professor rank at GPC as a full time librarian.
- All evaluation ratings for the 10 most recent semesters (5 annual evaluations and the mid-year review from the most recent year) must be “Expected” or better. (Candidate must not have any ratings of Needs Improvement in any area for the five most recent evaluations.)
- Candidate must have at least 2 ratings of "Exceeds Expectations" or better in Performance Effectiveness or Teaching Effectiveness, and at least 1 rating of "Exceptional" in Performance Effectiveness over the evaluations under review.
- Candidate must have 1 or more ratings of "Exceeds Expectations" or better in Service over the evaluations under review.
- Candidate must have 1 or more ratings of "Exceeds Expectations" or better in Professional Activities over the evaluations under review.
- Additionally, candidate must have at least 1 rating of "Exceptional" in either Service or Professional Activities over the evaluations under review.
- Candidate must have ratings of "Expected" or better in Practices and Performance for each of the past five most recent evaluations.

Degree/Experience Requirements:

Earned Master’s Degree in Library and Information Science or higher, doctorate in the field granted by a regionally accredited university. The degree requirement must be met by the date on which formal request for consideration is submitted to the Library Director/Associate Library Director.

OR

Master’s degree plus thirty (30) semester graduate hours in an appropriate field.

OR

Master’s degree and award of two or more “Exceptional” ratings in performance effectiveness for the three most recent evaluations.

Full-time library faculty experience is defined as an entire academic year on a library faculty contract.

* Consecutive years may include years before and after approved medical leaves, leaves of absence without pay, and professional enhancement leaves.
Promotion to Professor

Criteria for Promotion: Achieving the rank of Professor is a highly distinguished accomplishment for a senior faculty member, in recognition of truly exceptional performance beyond the expectations of the Associate Professor. As such, promotion to Full Professor should be based upon evidence of attaining the status of master librarian, notable scholar, and distinguished leader in the profession or at the institution. Because of the exceptional nature of promotion to Professor, the criteria for eligibility should be more rigorous than eligibility criteria for other ranks.

Eligibility:
- Candidate should have eight years of successful full-time librarian experience, with at least five (5) or more consecutive* years at the Associate Professor rank at GPC as a full-time librarian.
- Candidate must have ten or more semesters of above average performance.
- Candidate must have 2 or more ratings of Exceptional in Performance Effectiveness or Teaching Effectiveness over the five most recent evaluations. At least one of the Exceptional ratings must be in Performance Effectiveness.
- Candidate must have 2 or more ratings of Exceptional in Service over the five most recent evaluations.
- Candidate must have 1 or more ratings of Exceptional in Professional Activities over the five most recent evaluations.
- Candidate must have ratings of Expected or better in Practices and Performance for each of the past five most recent evaluations.
- Candidate must not have any ratings of Needs Improvement in any area for the five most recent evaluations.

Degree/Experience Requirements:

- Earned Master’s Degree in Library and Information Science or higher.
- Earned doctorate in the field granted by a regionally accredited university. The degree requirement must be met by the date on which formal request for consideration is submitted to the Library Director/Associate Library Director.

Full-time library faculty experience is defined as an entire academic year on a library faculty contract.

* Consecutive years may include years before and after approved medical leaves, leaves of absence without pay, and professional enhancement leaves.
Promotion Application Process

To apply for promotion, the faculty member must submit a promotion portfolio. Promotion portfolios should provide primary and secondary evidence of excellence in performance effectiveness, service, and professional activities. At a minimum they should contain:

1. A letter of application making the case for promotion
2. Annual evaluations from the previous five years at GPC.
3. A current curriculum vitae
4. Documentation consisting of evidence of:
   a. Excellence in librarianship (in areas such as reference service, information literacy, collection development, creation of guides and tutorials, cataloguing, among others)
   b. Excellence in service (such as committee work and other service to the department, college, and community)
   c. Excellence in Professional Activities/activities (such as examples of publications, presentations, grants, performances, projects, etc.)
5. At least three letters of support, including one from a full-time librarian at GPC and at least one from another peer inside of Georgia Perimeter College are required. Librarians also may include letters from peers outside of GPC. Faculty members should inform their colleagues of the criteria that should be addressed in the letters. The authors of the letters send their letters to the faculty member in a sealed envelope with their signature across the closure at the back of the envelope.

   Colleagues writing letters of support should address how the librarian demonstrates some or all (as appropriate) of the following:
   - Superior performance
   - Outstanding service to the institution
   - Academic achievement
   - Professional growth and development
6. Qualitative evaluation of performance effectiveness (including evaluations/observations and student evaluations and classroom observations if teaching.)
7. Goals for the next five years.
Promotion Review Process

1. Once the promotion portfolio is submitted, the faculty member will be evaluated by a layered process. The reviewers include a Peer Committee, Library Director/Associate Library Director, Executive Director of Library Services, and the Promotion and Tenure Panel. Their recommendations are forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs who reviews the recommendations and submits a recommendation to the President.

   The Library Peer Review Committee is comprised of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of five (5) full-time library faculty chosen by the library faculty member’s department on his or her campus. If there are not a sufficient number of librarians in the campus library department, then the Chair of the Committee may ask a full-time librarian or librarians from another campus or from other campuses to serve.

   The Promotion and Tenure Panel is formed as follows: Faculty will vote for all tenured faculty and librarians at GPC whom they would find acceptable serving on the panel. The Academic Division Deans and Vice President for Academic Affairs will select 21 faculty from the group voted by the faculty as a whole to serve on the panel.

2. The librarian submits the promotion portfolio to the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director, who forwards the portfolio to a department- or campus-based Peer Committee.

3. The department- or campus-based Peer Committee reviews the portfolio and, using the form provided, sends a written recommendation of support or denial to the Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director with a copy included in the portfolio.

4. The Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director writes a letter of support or denial based on his/her independent review. The Executive Library Director/Library Director’s/Associate Library Director’s letter is included in the portfolio and forwarded to the Executive Director of Library Services. If the librarian is a Director the portfolio is forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

5. The Executive Director of Library Services/Vice President for Academic Affairs reviews all documentation and writes a letter of support or denial to the faculty member. A copy of the letter is included in the portfolio.

Procedure for non-recommendation:
   a. The Executive Director of Library Services notifies the faculty member in writing of his/her intention not to recommend the faculty member for promotion.

   b. The faculty member may appeal the decision in writing following these guidelines:
      i.) The faculty member must submit a written appeal to the Executive Director of Library Services by date in the Implementation Timetable for Faculty Seeking Promotion and/or Tenure for the current academic year.
      ii.) The written appeal (in the form of a summary statement with supporting evidence) must identify the specific criteria to be reconsidered.
c. In the event of a written appeal, the Executive Director of Library Services must review the letter and documentation and respond in writing to the faculty member either endorsing the appeal or explaining a denial. In the case of a denial, the letter to the faculty member will include specific reasons for the denial.

6. The Executive Director of Library Services forwards all materials to the college-wide Promotion and Tenure Panel.

7. The Promotion and Tenure Panel reviews the portfolio. At this point, the Panel may request individual or joint interviews with the candidate and Executive Library Director/Library Director/Associate Library Director to clarify issues of concern. The Panel makes a written recommendation of support or denial to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

8. The Vice President for Academic Affairs writes a letter of support or denial and forwards the application, including all letters and appeal documents, if any, to the College President.

9. The College President approves or denies promotion.

10. If the President does not wish to endorse an affirmative recommendation by the Vice President, then the President will notify the faculty member in writing with a copy to the Vice President within four (4) working days of receipt of the Vice President’s recommendation.

11. Any faculty member receiving an adverse recommendation on promotion and/or tenure from the Vice President for Academic Affairs or from the President has a right to a review by a Promotion and Tenure Review panel, appointed by the President. The purpose of the Promotion and Tenure Review Panel is to provide additional information to the President concerning a faculty member’s appeal to an adverse recommendation by the Vice President for Academic Affairs regarding promotion. The Executive Director of Library Services, a faculty representative (from the same discipline group as the appellant), and the chair of the Promotion and Tenure Panel will comprise the review panel.

12. Faculty members who wish a review of an adverse recommendation on promotion must submit a letter to the President requesting a review. The letter must meet the following guidelines:

   a. The letter must state the basis of the review.
   b. The letter should designate a faculty member from the same division as the appellant whom the appellant wishes to include in the review and who has agreed to serve in that capacity. The faculty member should also indicate if she/he wishes to appear before the Promotion and Tenure Review Panel.
   c. The letter must be received by the President according to the Implementation Timetable for Faculty Seeking Promotion and/or Tenure.

13. After considering the evidence presented in the review, the President will make a decision within five (5) working days of the review and write a letter to the faculty member, the chair of the Promotion and Tenure Committee, the Executive Director of Library Services, and the Vice President for Academic Affairs informing them of the President’s final decision.

14. A faculty member dissatisfied with the decisions of the President may appeal to the Board of Regents in accordance with the policies of the Board.
