

“When Two Worlds Collide”

A Performance by Keith Wann

Come and enjoy a night of storytelling and Deaf Culture. Laugh with Keith as he takes you on a hilarious “visual” journey to describe his childhood experiences. Come learn about the Deaf and Hearing Worlds and how they often clash with the help of a mischievous child of Deaf adults...

Keith Wann is an acclaimed American Sign Language (ASL) performing artist who has been captivating and amusing audiences with his controlled chaos and total pandemonium comedy explosions on stage, often leaving his laughing audiences gasping for breath. Wann has quickly established a reputation for his wacky, off-the-wall stories that ring true with CODAs everywhere and are equally funny for other members of the Deaf Community.

This will be a night to remember!
