

JON SHIVE - CI/CT, EIPA 5

Jon, a native from North Carolina, graduated from East Carolina University in 1993 with a Bachelors Degree in Special Education and an Associate Degree in Interpreting for the Deaf. In his nineteen years of professional interpreting his experience has included educational, freelance, platform, medical/mental health and Video Relay interpreting. He has also been an adjunct professor in several Interpreter Training Programs since 1998.

He holds CI and CT certifications from the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) and has been in membership with GA, NC and FL Affiliate chapters of RID, American Sign Language Teachers Association (ASLTA), and the Conference of Interpreter Trainers (CIT). He has also served on the Board of Directors for NCRID and is currently on the GaRID Board.

He loves his position on the faculty as the new kid and working with students to achieve their best. He is currently working on his Masters Degree in Applied Linguistics at Georgia State University. He and his two dogs, Zak and Zoe, have set down their roots and now call Georgia home.
